

Friday, April 16th —7:00 p.m.

“ Preview of the 60 ' s & 70' s ” The Music of Motown
In partnership with the Sojourner-Douglass College.

Motown played an important role in the racial integration of popular music. Motown was the first record label owned by an African American to primarily feature African American artists who achieved crossover success. In the 1960s, Motown and its soul-based subsidiaries were the most successful proponents of what came to be known as The Motown Sound, a style of soul music with a distinct pop influence.

Tickets available at the Front Desk. $20.00 for Senior Center Members and $35.00 for all others.

Touchstones is for Everyone!

The Touchstones Discussion Project is a non-profit educational organization founded on the idea that people of all ages, cultures, and backgrounds can communicate and connect through discussion. Touchstones discussion circles can be found in elementary through high school classrooms nationwide, in prisons, in executive and government offices, as well as in various international settings such as Tanzania and Haiti. This Annapolis-based organization wants EVERYONE, including the experienced, thoughtful voices of the senior citizens at the Annapolis Senior Center, to join in the discussion!

Here at Annapolis, senior citizens from a variety of backgrounds come together on a regular basis to discuss topics such as charity, justice, love, anger, and war. Every participant is a source of energy, insight and inspiration for the group, and every text, be it by Martin Luther King, Jr. or William Shakespeare, sparks original, enlivening conversation. Because the short text is read aloud at the beginning of the hour-long session, participants never need to prepare; they are only asked to arrive with a lively and open mind, ready to listen, think and share.

Touchstones discussions also offer the opportunity to form genuine, caring relationships in an environment based on respect, patience, equality, and acceptance. In this secure setting, seniors bring their wit, wisdom, and depth to every session. Touchstones Seniors support, encourage, and motivate one another, refreshing their lives with social and mental confidence, energy and lasting curiosity.
