Program Catalog

Touchstones® is a non-profit on a mission to build a more inclusive world, one discussion at a time. Collaborative learning requires different skills than learning as an individual. With Touchstones, these skills are explicitly addressed and intentionally built. In our discussion programs, every student has an equal right to speak and learn and an equal responsibility to listen and make room for others. Touchstones democratizes education to prepare your students for academic success and civic engagement in an ever-changing world.

How Touchstones Works

Touchstones Professional Development

Since 1984, we've trained tens of thousands of educators, and participants consistently rate Touchstones workshops as some of the best training they've had! Our highly experienced facilitators are here to help you prepare for success with Touchstones. Whether you are an individual instructor interested in using Touchstones in your classroom, a college administrator looking to implement Touchstones more widely, or a researcher in higher education, we offer a variety of training options to support your working knowledge as a Touchstones discussion leader.

Workshops

Touchstones offers regularly scheduled virtual and in-person workshops throughout the year, open to any educator. Three levels of training help you work toward a Certificate in Discussion Leadership.

Coaching

Get personalized support for you or your colleagues with individual coaching. Educators identify their goals and Touchstones staff engage in an observation and feedback cycle to support growth.

Custom Training

We offer in-service workshops and professional development to support entire faculties and staff in successfully implementing Touchstones. Each workshop is tailored to your unique needs and goals.

Touchstones Two-Poster Set

This two-poster set reminds your students of the Touchstones Ground Rules and helps them to understand the different leadership roles they will assume in small groups.

$30.95 for both posters

Higher Education Volumes

Touchstones supports you to systematically establish a classroom culture of respect in partnership with your students. In Touchstones discussions, your students learn to teach themselves and others, collaborate with all classmates, gain greater awareness of their assumptions, and ultimately share power and responsibility for group dynamics.

Digital volumes are available through our Online Classroom and can be purchased on a subscription basis by individual students or as a class with a minimum of 10 student licenses. We can also partner with your college or university bookstore to make print version available to students directly. Reach out to us at 410-604-3309 or highered@touchstones.org to discuss the best approach for your needs.

Your students strengthen communication skills, as they form a collaborative and respectful community of learners.

The Compass

The Compass is the most flexible Touchstones volume designed for college seminar courses. It is, therefore, a useful tool for Bridge and FYE programs. Students using The Compass build essential communication and thinking skills, collectively map strategies for continuous improvement, and form a community of learners characterized by trust and respect. No advanced preparation is initially required by students, though students prepare for and lead later discussions.

Exploring American Perspectives

The first volume of this series features selections from W. E. B. DuBois, Zora Neale Hurston, Alice Walker, Langston Hughes, Frederick Douglass, Lois Mailou Jones, and other Black writers, philosophers, poets, and visual artists. These diverse texts serve as tools for students' shared exploration of uniquely American perspectives. Each of the 22 lessons fosters and enhances problem-solving, critical thinking, and leadership through direct practice.

Mapping the Future

Students using Mapping the Future engage in collaborative explorations of philosophical, political, and scientific constructs through primary source texts. Each lesson features a classical text paired with a contemporary text, which serve to illuminate our thinking and presuppositions within a world of increasing cultural and intellectual diversity and global interconnectivity. Through Mapping the Future, students learn to analyze, evaluate, synthesize systematically, and apply knowledge as reflective thinkers, mindful discussants, and ethical leaders.

Courage to Care: Strength to Serve is an anthology of Touchstones texts and questions for discussion that invite students to reflect on all aspects of community service. Arranged by theme, the texts offer students and teachers alike a format in which to openly consider the opportunities and challenges associated with service. Topics covered in the volume include the preparation for service, historical perspectives, general reflections, and service to others.

New Landscapes

The longer selections in New Landscapes encourage students to reflect on the foundations of their basic attitudes and assumptions. Students use the texts to delve into their presuppositions and examine sources of their own knowledge, engaging creatively and effectively as leaders. New Landscapes helps upper level undergraduates and college faculty alike to develop seminar leadership skills.
